

WEST MERSEA TOWN COUNCIL

Job title: Head Groundsperson

Salary: According to experience

Start date: July 2019

Hours of work: 39 hours per week Monday – Friday

Employer: West Mersea Town Council is an organisation where all staff are trusted, supported and valued to make a positive contribution at work. This means we want this to be a place where:

- Everyone's views and opinions are encouraged, heard and properly considered.
- We share responsibility for our own learning and development and are encouraged and supported to do so by others.
- We work hard and feel comfortable to suggest new ideas, ways of working and to take managed risks.
- We feel a strong sense of belonging to the whole Council and our skills, knowledge and experience are used to benefit the organisation as a whole.

Job Description: We are seeking a permanent full time head grounds person to manage and work with a small team of groundsmen to maintain the Town Council's parks, buildings, open spaces and sports facilities to a very high standard.

The successful candidate will be an experienced, enthusiastic person who can work on their own initiative and alongside the staff and Council, to plan, manage, enhance and maintain the Council's assets.

Full clean driving licence essential.
